DETAILED ACTION

Amendment

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed 22 August 2003.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-40 and 42-56 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The best prior art of record fails to specifically teach the precise arrangement of components of the moving-beam scanner of the instant application. The combination of Krichever, Bard, and Knowles fails to teach that the flexible connector moves due to an oscillating magnetic field. Eastman et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,015,831, from hereinafter "Eastman") teaches scan modules for barcode readers in which scan elements are flexurally supported. Although Eastman teaches the use of conventional scanning components (i.e. laser light source, photodiode, focusing lens and collecting lens) and in addition the use of a flexure to couple a circuit board to a scanning component, Eastman teaches the arrangement of all of the elements in one module without a specific housing, unlike the instant application which recites that the scanning component is separate from the scanner (see Figure 1 and especially col 3 line 58 to col 4 line 47). The best prior art of record (Krichever/Bard/Knowles/Eastman) fails to teach the scanning arrangement as recited in independent claims 1, 15, 29, and 49, and their dependent claims.

Hence the best prior art of record fails to teach the invention as set forth in claims 1-40 and 42-56 and the examiner can find no teaching of the specific oscillating magnetic field driven moving beam scanner, nor reasons within the cited prior art or on her own to combine the elements of these references other than the applicant's own reasoning to fully encompass the current pending claims. In addition, see applicant's reasoning in amendment/response filed 22 August 2003.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
